EXPLANATORY NOTE

Under the CJA 2010, an individual who effectively directs or is the beneficial owner of a Private Members' Club at which gambling activities are carried on, must hold a certificate of fitness and probity (certificate of fitness). The term "beneficial owner" has the meaning assigned to it by sections 26 to 30 of the CJA 2010.

Where the applicant is not ordinarily resident in the State i.e. the applicant's principal residence was outside the State for the 12 months immediately preceding their application, certificates are granted by the Minister For Justice, Home Affairs and Migration. [A separate application form is to be used if the applicant normally resides in the State.] The Minister must be satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person.

This disclosure must include such offences as driving offences, non-payment of a TV licence and public order offences, and includes the application of probation or community service. This covers offences in the Republic of Ireland. A Garda vetting invite form is available from the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit website: <https://www.amlcompliance.ie>

If you lived in any jurisdiction for 6 months or more other than the Republic of Ireland it will be mandatory to provide security clearance for each jurisdiction in which you have resided stating that you have no convictions recorded against you while residing there.

Additionally, the applicant must enclose a copy of Government-issued photographic identification (preferably colour), proof of address (utility bill, bank statement or official Government-issued document dated within six months) and evidence that a notice of intent has been published in two daily newspapers circulating in the State not later than 14 days and not earlier than one month before making the application.
