Introduction

This 2025 Annual Report has been prepared by the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit (AMLCU) of the Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration under section 65 of the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010 as amended (the 'Act'). Under section 65 of the Act, a competent authority shall include, in each annual report published by the authority, an account of the activities that it has carried out in performing its functions under this Act during the year to which the annual report relates.

Under section 60 of the Act, the Minister for Justice is a competent authority. The Minister for Justice has delegated the Minister's competent authority functions under section 108 of the Act to officials in the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit in the Department. The AMLCU supervises certain designated non-financial businesses and professions that are required to take measures to ensure their businesses are not being used for money laundering and/or terrorist financing. There are multiple supervisors of designated persons in Ireland including the Central Bank (financial sector), Property Services Regulatory Authority (property service providers), Legal Services Regulatory Authority (barristers), Law Society (solicitors) and Designated Accounting Bodies (accountants.) The AMLCU is the supervisor by default where there is no existing regulator for a particular category of obliged entities in Ireland.

The framework in Ireland to prevent money laundering and terrorist financing happening in the State derives from Ireland's participation both in the Financial Action Taskforce (FATF) and in the European Union (EU). These two international bodies set the standards for measures to be implemented by countries to prevent financial and non-financial businesses and professions being used for money laundering and terrorist financing. Legal obligations in Ireland are set out in the Act.

The number of regulatory investigations performed by the AMLCU in 2025 increased by 7% compared to the previous year, with 804 separate inspections undertaken. The number of TCSP's authorised and supervised by the AMLCU increased to 486 in 2026 compared to the previous year, a rise of 4%. The processing activity of new and renewal applications for TCSP authorisation decreased by 11% to 118 in 2025, compared to the previous year.

Designated Persons supervised by the AMLCU

Section 60 of the Act sets out which competent authorities are responsible for supervising the various categories of designated persons. The AMLCU is responsible for supervising those designated persons for which there is no existing regulator for that category of business/profession. The various designated persons that were under the AMLCU supervisory remit in 2025 are set out in Table 1 below.

Table 1: Designated Persons and Competent Authorities

Designated Person	Competent Authority
Regulated Credit and Financial Institutions (including some TCSPs which are subsidiaries of regulated entities)	Central Bank of Ireland
Solicitors	Law Society of Ireland
Barristers	Legal Services Regulatory Authority (LSRA)
Accountants, Auditors, Tax Advisers and some TCSPs in specific circumstances	6 Designated Accounting Bodies (DABs)
Property Service Providers	Property Services Regulatory Authority (PSRA)
Any Designated Person who is not subject to supervision by another regulator: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Dealers in High Value Goods (HVGDs)</li> <li>- Trust or Company Service Providers (TCSPs) not otherwise supervised;</li> <li>- Notaries not otherwise supervised;</li> <li>- High Value Art Traders and Art Intermediaries;</li> <li>- Tax Advisers not otherwise supervised;</li> <li>- External Accountants (not within the remit of the DABs);</li> <li>- Gambling Service Providers (private members clubs, retail bookmakers, on-course bookmakers and online gambling providers).</li> </ul>	Minister for Justice (delegated to the AMLCU under Section 108 of the Act)

Regulatory Investigations

The AMLCU supervises the following designated persons: High Value Goods Dealers (HVGDs) (car dealers, boat dealers, jewellers, gold bullion dealers etc.), Trust or Company Service Providers (TCSPs) not supervised by the Central Bank or designated accountancy bodies, gambling service providers (bookmakers, online, on-course), notaries public in respect of certain services, and tax advisors and accountants not otherwise supervised.

Designated persons must take various actions to ensure their business is not being used for either money laundering or terrorist financing. This includes, inter alia, having a business risk assessment and appropriate policies and procedures and training in place. Table 2 below sets out the key sections of the Act, the obligations on designated persons and the offences committed in the case of non-compliance.

Regulatory investigators of the AMLCU, who are appointed as authorised officers under the Act, carry out inspections on designated non-financial businesses and professions for which the AMLCU is the supervisor. At an inspection, the regulatory investigator typically inspects a business's documentation, sample transactions and interviews staff. The regulatory investigator assesses the designated person's compliance or otherwise with their obligations.

Inspections of Designated Persons by the AMLCU in 2025

In 2025, regulatory investigators of the AMLCU carried out a total of 804 inspections of designated persons under the Minister’s remit, an increase of 7% on the number of inspections compared to the previous year. This was a combination of onsite inspections and offsite inspections. The majority of inspections were conducted onsite.

Chart 1 illustrates the numbers of designated persons by cohort type that were inspected in 2025.

Chart 1: Overview of 2025 compliance inspections by cohort

The breakdown of inspections by cohort was:

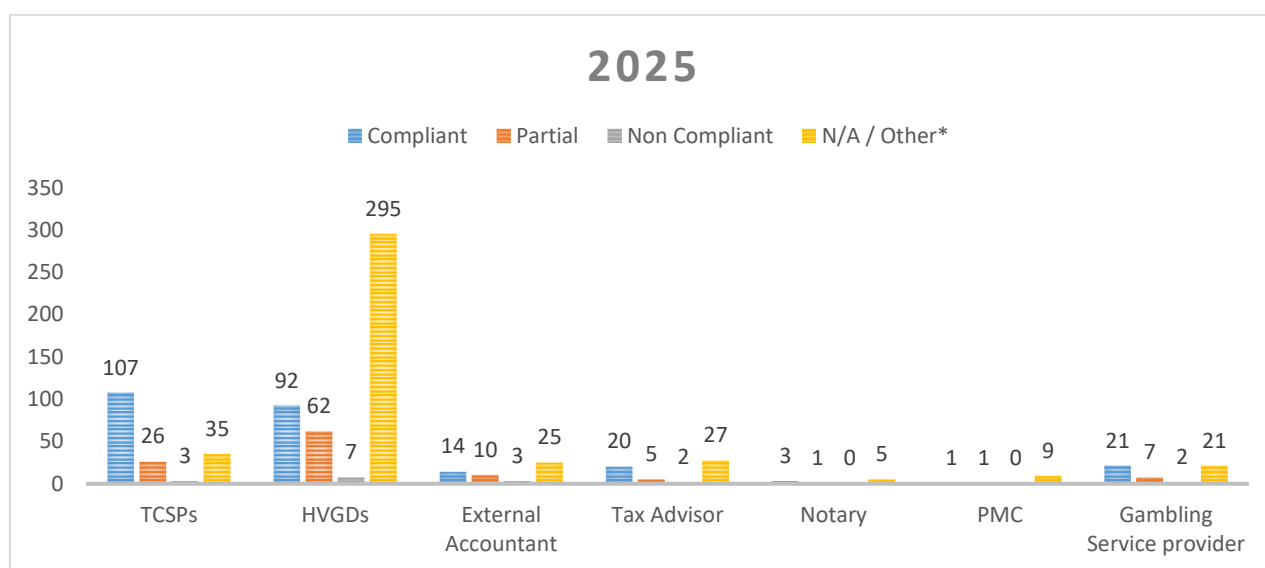

- 171 inspections of TCSPs
- 456 inspections of HVGDs (including car dealers, antique dealers, jewellers, gold bullion dealers, art traders and boat/marine dealers)
- 9 inspections of Notaries Public
- 51 inspections of Gambling Providers
- 106 inspections of Tax Advisors/External Accountants not otherwise supervised
- 11 Private Members Clubs.

Compliance Rates

Following each inspection, the AMLCU regulatory investigator rates the designated person in terms of compliance with their legal obligations on the basis of their findings at inspection.

Chart 2 below sets out the levels of compliance in 2025 by designated person cohort.

Russian Invasion of Ukraine and Sanctions

The ongoing Russian invasion of Ukraine since 2022 and the subsequent related financial sanctions have given rise to a number of important factors which may impact on the business of a number of designated persons supervised by the AMLCU, in particular those who deal in precious metals (particularly gold) and some Trust or Company Service Providers.

Whilst the AMLCU is not a Competent Authority with respect to sanctions, the AMLCU has engaged with its regulated entities regarding the various sanctions packages. In the course of inspections by the AMLCU, relevant designated persons, where appropriate, were directed to appropriate sources of further information regarding the sanctions packages.

In a broader context, the Cross-Departmental International Sanctions Committee (CDISC), chaired by the Department of Foreign Affairs, coordinates the domestic implementation of sanctions in Ireland. It provides a forum for Departments and Agencies involved in sanctions to discuss questions around effective implementation and to share knowledge. The Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration is a member of the CDISC and participates in the dissemination of information concerning sanctioned persons / entities to those under its supervision.

HVGDs Inspections

In 2025, regulatory investigators of the AMLCU carried out a total of 456 inspections of High Value Goods Dealers: (31 jewellers, 7 Gold bullion dealers, 21 antique dealers, 300 car and heavy machinery dealers, 24 art traders and 73 luxury goods dealers).

Authorisation of Trust or Company Service Providers

Under Chapter 9 of the Act, TCSPs not supervised by the Central Bank or a DAB must make an application for authorisation to the AMLCU. At the end of 2025, a total of 486 TCSPs were recorded as authorised by the AMLCU. The procedures relating to the authorization of TCSPs are detailed and set out in sections 84 to 106 of the Act. Before a TCSP application is authorised by the AMLCU and placed on the TCSP register, significant checks must be undertaken. The application process is detailed and requires submission of multiple documents as set out below.

TCSPs are supervised by the Central Bank, where the TCSP is a subsidiary of a regulated entity, and by Designated Accountancy Bodies (DABs) in specific circumstances (e.g. where the principals are members of a DAB.) Any TCSPs not supervised by the Central Bank or a DAB are supervised by the AMLCU. The AMLCU has a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on the supervision of TCSPs with the DABs and with the Law Society. The MOUs clarify who the relevant competent authority of a designated person is in given circumstances. Copies of the MoUs are available on the AMLCU website: www.amlcompliance.ie

Authorisation Procedure

Before a TCSP application is authorised by the AMLCU and placed on the TCSP register, supervisory checks must be undertaken. This is in line with Section 88 of the Act.

TCSPs must renew their authorisation every three years. In 2025, the AMLCU processed 84 TCSP authorisation renewals and 34 new authorisation applications. 5 applicants subsequently withdrew their authorisation application and 12 TCSPs did not renew their authorisation. 6 TCSPs had their authorization revoked or refused in 2025.

Regarding revocations, it should be noted that a TCSP may apply, under section 96 of the Act, to have their authorisation revoked (if, for example, it may have ceased trading). Section 97 of the Act provides for the revocation of authorisations by the AMLCU for reasons other than on application of the holder. Section 104 of the Act provides for the preparation of a register of persons holding AMLCU TCSP authorisations. The register of TCSPs authorised by the AMLCU can be found at www.amlcompliance.ie.

In 2025, 171 inspections of TCSPs were performed by the AMLCU.

Suspicious Transaction Reports (STRs)

Under section 42 of the Act, a designated person who knows, suspects or has reasonable grounds to suspect, on the basis of information obtained in the course of carrying on business as a designated person, that another person has been or is engaged in an offence of money laundering or terrorist financing shall report to the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU Ireland) and the Revenue Commissioners that knowledge or suspicion or those reasonable grounds. FIU Ireland is Ireland's Financial Intelligence Unit and it is located in An Garda Síochána.

Table 3 below was produced by FIU Ireland and sets out the number of STRs received from 2021 to 2025 by agency business type or profession.

Registration of Private Members Clubs

Under section 109 of the Act, persons directing Private Members' Clubs (PMCs), at which gambling activities are carried on, are required to register with the AMLCU. Sections 109A-109E of the Act detail various requirements and procedures relating to fit and proper checks of managers and beneficial owners of PMCs, which are required once every three years.

The signing of S.I. 272 of 2022 gave the basis to the requirement for individuals who effectively direct a private members club at which gambling activities are carried on, or who are beneficial owners of a private members club at which gambling activities are carried on, to hold a valid certificate of fitness. This is required as part of the registration process for PMCs with the Minister for Justice.

The AMLCU maintains the register of PMCs. At the end of 2025, 12 PMCs were recorded on the register.

In 2025, 11 inspections of PMCs were performed by the AMLCU.

Direction to comply issued to Designated Persons

Under section 63 of the Act, the AMLCU as a competent authority is required to effectively monitor the designated persons for whom it is a competent authority and to take measures that are reasonably necessary for the purpose of securing compliance by those designated persons with their legal requirements. The AMLCU must consider whether the designated person is able to demonstrate that the requirements of the Act are being met.

Under the Act, a State competent authority may issue a direction (legal instruction) to a designated person, which the designated person must comply with. The most common directions issued by the AMLCU are as follows:

- Section 68 Direction: Under section 68 of the Act, a State competent authority may by notice in writing direct a designated person to furnish to the authority an explanation of any documents relating to the designated person.
- Section 71 Direction: Under section 71 of the Act, a State competent authority may by notice in writing direct a designated person to discontinue or refrain from engaging in specified conduct or may direct that the designated person take specific actions or establish specific processes or procedures that in the opinion of the authority are reasonably necessary for the purposes of complying with any specified provision of the Act.

Failure by a designated person to take action on foot of a direction issued by the AMLCU may result in prosecution. In 2025, the AMLCU issued a total of 48 directions. Directions are issued on a case-by-case basis resulting from inspections by authorised officers of the AMLCU who will submit a report and recommendation to the Competent Authority. Having reviewed the report and recommendation, the Competent Authority will decide whether it is appropriate to issue a direction.

Competent Authority Reports (CARs) made by AMLCU regulatory investigators to FIU Ireland and Revenue

Under section 63(4) of the Act, a competent authority that, in the course of monitoring a designated person, acquires any knowledge or forms any suspicion that another person has been or is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing shall report that knowledge or suspicion to An Garda Síochána and the Revenue Commissioners.

In 2025, the AMLCU submitted 53 competent authority reports (CARs) to FIU Ireland on GoAML under section 63 of the Act. Chapter 3A of the Act sets out the powers of FIU Ireland.

There was ongoing dialogue throughout 2025 between the AMLCU and the FIU with regard to competent authority reports (CARs) submitted by the AMLCU.

Outlook - Enforcement under the Act and expansion of the regulatory toolkit – the 6th Anti Money Laundering Directive

An expansion of the regulatory enforcement toolkit, to be provided for under secondary legislation, is expected to take place in summer 2026, with the adoption of an administrative sanction's regime that can apply for those Designated Persons supervised by the AMLCU.

Ultimately, further expansion will arise upon the full transposition of the new AML Directive (6th Anti Money Laundering Directive - EU 2024/1640. Member States shall bring into force the laws, regulations and administrative provisions necessary to comply with this Directive by 10 July 2027.<sup>2</sup>

Outreach Activities 2025

Dedicated Website maintained by the AMLCU

The AMLCU website, www.amlcompliance.ie, is a key tool used by the AMLCU to provide information to designated persons on topics related to AML/CFT compliance. The AMLCU uses its website to communicate with designated persons and in July 2020, the website was renovated and relaunched.

The website includes information flyers on risk factors by cohort type, application forms, national risk assessments, FATF guidance on risk-based supervision and information on how to make suspicious transaction reports to FIU Ireland and to Revenue. The website also contains the registers of TCSPs that have been authorised by the AMLCU and PMCs that are registered. The website is updated regularly.

Ongoing Outreach to Designated Persons

During the year, as part of its outreach activities, the AMLCU continued to deliver ‘streetscape’ events incorporating inspections and information seminars at large towns and cities. Streetscape events were carried out in Cork, South Dublin (Leopardstown Business District; Tallaght District) and Dublin City Centre.

These events include a range of awareness and inspection activities such as:

- walk-in inspections of premises that fall under the supervisory remit of the AMLCU.
- invitations to local businesses via representative organisations such as the local chambers of commerce to AML and CFT information seminars organised and hosted by the AMLCU.

These streetscapes and seminars have an educative and awareness-raising function, highlighting the AML and CFT obligations of businesses that fall under its supervisory remit. The AMLCU also commenced a formal ‘feedback’ process, through issuing an online questionnaire to those who participated at these events. This engagement allows the AMLCU to measure the effectiveness of these events and help assess future opportunities for more targeted engagement.

This year, the AMLCU also launched a new initiative to commence outreach at national events / fairs that have designated persons in attendance at trade stands – the National Ploughing Championships and the RDS Dublin Horseshow were visited by representatives of the AMLCU, who engaged with members of the public as well as designated persons on topics of interest, as well as engagements with those designated persons on their AMLTF obligations.

Publication of Anti-Money Laundering & Countering the Financing of Terrorism – Guidelines for Designated Persons supervised by the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit

In 2024, the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit (AMLCU) published Anti-Money Laundering & Countering the Financing of Terrorism – Guidelines for Designated Persons supervised by the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit.<sup>3</sup>

The purpose of the Guidelines is to assist those Designated Persons supervised by the AMLCU in understanding and meeting their Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism obligations under the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010 as amended and related Statutory Instruments.

This was a significant milestone in the AMLCU’s communications and outreach plans. At its publication, the Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Unit also invited feedback on these Guidelines and welcomed comments or suggestions.

Outreach – Other Competent Authorities, National and International Engagement

There has been ongoing engagement and outreach with representative bodies for the cohorts supervised by the AMLCU, such as the Faculty of Notaries Ireland, Legal Services Regulatory Authority, Law Society of Ireland, the Irish Bookmakers Association, The Irish Tax Institute. The AMLCU also engaged with the interim Gambling Regulator (now Gambling Regulatory Authority of Ireland (GRAI)), the PSRA, An Garda Síochána, the CBI, the FIU and other relevant stakeholders. The AMLCU also engaged bilaterally with the GRAI on matters of mutual interest as the GRAI accelerates the roll out of its mandate as provided for under the 2024 Gambling Regulation Act.

During 2025, the AMLCU continued to engage extensively with Department of Justice, Home Affairs and Migration and Department of Finance officials on the continuing preparatory steps necessary to transpose the requirements of the new 6th Anti-Money Laundering Directive. The AMLCU has also engaged with the Central Bank of Ireland and other Competent Authorities on matters relevant to the ongoing establishment of the EU Anti-Money Laundering Authority (AMLA), as that authority commences its mandate and begins its programme of work, including the development of Regulatory Technical Standards that shall apply to obliged entities<sup>4</sup>.

In 2025, the AMLCU continued to contribute to the Irish delegation to the Financial Action Task Force (FATF), as well as the overall work of the FATF itself throughout the year.

Appendix 2 - Competent Authorities under the Criminal Justice (Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing) Act 2010 as amended

Section 60 of the Act sets out the meaning of competent authority, which is the supervisory body required to monitor specified designated persons. The regulated financial sector is supervised by the Central Bank of Ireland. Other designated persons are termed “Designated Non-Financial Businesses and Professions” (DNFBPs.) The DNFBPs comprise those businesses and professions that are specified in the Act or prescribed by statutory instrument by the Minister and that are required to comply with provisions of the legislation. There are 13 different competent authorities in the DNFBP sector, including the Minister who has delegated competent authority functions to the AMLCU. In the DNFBP, 10 of the supervisory bodies are ‘self-regulating bodies’ namely the prescribed accounting bodies, the Law Society and Bar Council. The other three are the Legal Services Regulatory Authority (which supervises barristers not supervised by the Bar Council), the Property Services Regulatory Authority (see SI 453 of 2016) and the Minister for Justice.

Section 60 of the Act sets out .— (1) Subject to section 61, a reference in this Part to the competent authority for a designated person is a reference to the competent authority prescribed for the class of designated persons to which the designated person belongs.

(2) If no such competent authority is prescribed, a reference in this Part to the competent authority is a reference to the following:

(a) in the case of a designated person that is a credit institution or a financial institution, the Central Bank of Ireland;

(b) in the case of a designated person who is an auditor, external accountant, tax adviser or trust or company service provider—

(i) if the person is a member of a designated accountancy body, the designated accountancy body, or

(ii) if the person is not a member of a designated accountancy body and is a body corporate, or a body of unincorporated persons, carrying out its functions under this Part through officers and members of it who are members of a designated accountancy body, the designated accountancy body;

(c) in the case of a designated person who is a solicitor, the Law Society of Ireland;

(d) in the case of a designated person who is a barrister who is a member of the Law Library, the General Council of the Bar of Ireland;

(e) in the case of any designated person other than a designated person referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d), the Minister.

(3) The Minister may prescribe a competent authority for a class of designated persons, for the purpose of subsection (1), only if the Minister is satisfied that the competent authority is more appropriate than the competent authority specified in subsection (2) for the class of designated persons, having regard to the nature of the business activities engaged in by that class.
